Customer Reviews

The images and commentary of this book are educational, inspirational and beautiful to look at. Historical re-enactors will treasure not only the illustrations of garb, but the furniture, pageantry and entertainment ideas that will lend your hard work with documentable inspiration. Tents, chairs, dance movement, scroll work and personal ornamentation from primary sources -- it doesn't get much better than this!

What a great book at what a great price. The slides are so real, a great job, publishing at its best.

Last year, I went to the Metropolitan Museum for the Persian art gallery, and during the visit I came across a book named: Masterpieces from the Department of Islamic Art in The Metropolitan Museum of Art. That book had some good coverage of Met's collection, however I wasn't too impressed by its layout and stories. I was hoping to find an Islamic art book with bigger and nicer illustrations. Then I found this 20yr old book, and I really enjoy the rich content and beautiful prints.
